

CALIFORNIA BUILDING STANDARDS COMMISSION EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The California Building Standards Commission (BSC), headquartered in Sacramento, California, is seeking an Executive Director. Established in 1953 by the California Building Standards Law, the BSC is an independent commission within the State and Consumer Services Agency. Commission members are appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the State Senate. The BSC's mission is to produce sensible and usable state building standards and administrative regulations that implement or enforce those standards.

The Executive Director reports to the 11-member Commission and manages six staff and a $996,000 current year operating budget. Successful candidates will have experience in and/or knowledge of: building regulations and design; building standards law/administrative procedures; budgeting; code development, code enforcement, management; and public policy. Ideal candidates must have a proven record of success, excellent interpersonal and communication skills, a high level of political astuteness, and unquestionable integrity. Candidates who are flexible, patient, bring a collaborative spirit and a "roll up your sleeves" approach to the workplace will be considered favorably. A Bachelor's degree in Architecture, Engineering, Construction Management, Project Management or closely related field is expected. Relevant work experience in a high-level supervisory position may be substituted for the education requirement.

The annual salary is $100,644 - $108,864 DOQ. A comprehensive benefit package (including PERS 2% @ 55 retirement) is also provided. To be considered submit resume, cover letter with salary history, and three work-related references by Friday, April 7, 2006. An information brochure is available by contacting:
